Valued Customer,

Enclosed you will find our full cert package which includes the manufacturers CofC, metal certification, heat treat certification, NDT certification and plating and or passivation certification (if applicable). Furthermore, all NAS1193 aviation fasteners are made using alloy that is covered by certification that meets DFARS Clause 252.225.7009. All alloy used for these castings originated in the United States (see certification) and is melted in house using the certified alloy. In closing AMT Inc. prides itself on products that are manufactured in house and are 100% made in the USA.

Thank you!
